SCANDAL STALKS IN GERMAN COURT

Priest Charged With Terrible
Crimes In Name of Religion.

ST. PETERSBURG, Russia, April 27.—Grand Duke Nicholas, Commander of the Guard and of the St. Petersburg Military District, is fighting a desperate duel with Minister of War Suchomlinoff for the soul of Nicholas II, "Old Man," Grigori Rasputin is, as they say, "interfering." St. Petersburg throbs with the scandal. The Tsarina has dismissed it, and Prime Minister Kokovtseff, who hates trouble and equally hates making up his mind, is in a downcast mood.

"Old Man," Grigori Rasputin has been put up by Grand Duke Nicholas to play the role at Tarkio Selo which was formerly played by Spiritualist Monsieur Philippe. Monsieur Philippe was a French rogue who thoroughly foisted Nicholas II until he was exposed by Patchkovsky, chief of the secret police and government hooligans, organized, who hated all muckrakers except his own. But Rasputin is a greater man than Philippe. He is a half-literate Siberian peasant who discovered by another Czarist saint, Bishop Theophan, when Theophan fell from favor Rasputin took his place.

Rasputin calls him "Staretz," which means literally "old man," but is applied to all the pravling vagabonds and sinless but soapless mendicants who inundate Holy Russia. His power is due to the "pull" he got with Czarina Alexandra, whom he convinced that the little heir Alexis can be saved only by his prayers, and that the moment he ceases praying the Terrorists will get little Alex.

It Salons in Peasant Garb.
Unshorn, unwashed, garbed in a peasant's "armak," and greased top boots, Rasputin could not be seen in 1910 in the smartest salons of St. Petersburg. He was beloved by plies women and as he preached that young and pretty ones could be saved only by himself his adherents were many. Then began the inevitable revelations. The name Rasputin is derived from the Russian word "rasputni," which means "debauched," and the revelations showed that the "old man's" name fitted him.

Twenty fathers and mothers wrote letters to the papers demanding that Rasputin be put on trial, giving details which justified their demand. From girls of 16 to women who had celebrated their silver wedding nothing female escaped Rasputin's net. And at the end of 1910 eleven divorce cases were pending in the Senate, all caused by the court favorite.

The salons are now mostly closed to Rasputin, but the "Old Man" has kept his position at court. This is due to benevolent Grand Duke Nicholas. Grand Duke Nicholas always maintains some emissary who will influence in his favor weak-minded Nicholas II. The Grand Duke has quarreled with Minister of War Suchomlinoff and he not only ignores all the War Office's demands, but issues commands of his own, flatly contradicting them, Suchomlinoff on his side tries to keep his monarch's favor. This he does by neglecting the Army and spending all his time with the "Poteshchiye" or Boy Scouts, the latest plaything of Nicholas II. Suchomlinoff, more or less feebly backed by Kokovtseff, wants to get rid of Rasputin, while Grand Duke Nicholas declares Rasputin is a saint. So far the ministerial anti-Rasputin party has been soundly defeated.

CASCARETS CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

No Bloating, Headache, SICK, Sour
Stomach, Indigestion, Coated
Tongue or Constipation.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give you a thorough cleansing inside and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good gentle cleansing, too.

According to the Tokyo Press, wireless telephone experiments were conducted successfully on the 15th inst. in Tokyo Bay, under the direction of Mr. Yokoyama and Mr. Torigai, experts of the Communications Department. The cable steamer Okinawamaru, with the apparatus on board, was stationed at a point outside Tokyo Bay, and from there exchanged communications with a land-point near Shimabara.

"I don't believe that story about Nero fiddling while Rome burned," "Why?" "Any true musician would have known better than to try to hold an audience while the fire department was turning out."
